Revising for exams alone in the final spring break is tough – maintaining momentum and ignoring distractions. Students on OSC's IB Revision Courses get more work done in a shorter time than they could have imagined – and enjoy it! 100s come from schools around the world to live and work together in beautiful Oxford colleges. Students work hard, make friends and leave OSC invigorated and confident. With a different teacher and new approaches, they rapidly increase both their understanding of and familiarity with their subjects, and their ability to write exams.

Big is best
Grouping by ability
In Oxford, with over 300 classes, we can group students by predicted grade so that they can go at the speed that is best for them.

Grouping by topic
Students fill in an online questionnaire which we use to place them in a class, and to make sure we cover all their needs.

Experience is everything
Worldwide reputation
OSC attracts students from over 400 IB Diploma schools in 75 countries. Parents and students strongly recommend us within schools, and students return to us throughout their IB career. Our team of IB professionals visits schools worldwide to advise on revision techniques.

Minority subjects
We offer classes in all main and many minority IB subjects, and can meet special requests for subjects or unusual topics.
Options classes
Many students have not spent enough time on their options. We offer options classes in science, maths HL and History.

“The intensity of the OSC courses and the opportunity of working with so many highly motivated students, is always something that I look forward to.”
